Electronic Reporting System

In late 2010, the IPHC instituted a new reporting system for Churches and Ministers/Clergy. As of June 30, 2013, a good number of churches and clergy have begun using the new computer, web-based reporting system for their monthly reporting and giving commitments to the IPHC. No software is required to be loaded and the new system has won praise from the majority of participants.

To begin reporting online, please send an email to Conference Secretary-Treasurer Oris Hubbard at ohubbard.nciphc@gmail.com. He will contact you and activate you or your church in the system.

2010 BYLAWS COMMITTEE REPORT

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BYAWS

MINISTER'S RECORDS

1. All clergy shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.
2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.
3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes and listed on the conference website. These churches are to be listed by districts.
4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report monthly and annually to the Conference. Annual reports are due in the Conference Office by January 10.
5. Churches and church Secretaries/Treasurers with Internet access should make every effort to use the new IPHC web-based reporting system.

PASTORAL CHANGES

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference.
2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the Manual of the International Pentecostal Holiness church. No exceptions will be allowed.
3. All churches and ministers shall work directly through the Conference Bishop when a pastoral change is desired.
4. If a pastor desires to move from his church, his request shall be in writing to the Conference Bishop. A second letter, which will be filed with the church in the event the Pastor moves, shall be sent to the Conference Bishop indicating the Pastor's desire to be moved, but not including personal information such as motives, personalities involved, etc.

MINISTERIAL CANDIDATES-LICENSING AND ORDINATION

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Bishop.
2. Each candidate for the ministry shall be a member of a local International Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of his/her application for credentials.
3. All candidates shall satisfy the committee on Examination and /or Conference Executive Council that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.
4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Executive Council shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character. A criminal background check shall be made on each candidate by the Conference.
5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman, the Conference Superintendent.
6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed the courses of studies approved by the General Conference or equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Executive Council.
7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis. The Hispanic Leadership Board shall examine Spanish speaking candidates and make proper recommendations to the Conference or Conference Executive Council.

DEEDS

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.

LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS

1. Eligibility for selection and tenure of service on the Church Leadership Team (Elders, Deacons, Board Members) will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.
2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family (husband-wife, parent-child, brother-sister, brother-brother, sister-sister) in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.
3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers' offices.
4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

RESOLUTIONS

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear the signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions committee. The resolution shall be submitted in writing.

FINANCES-MINISTER AND CHURCH

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.
2. Each local church shall support the IPHC and N.C. Conference budgets by submitting a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings (all undesignated income) to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis. The Conference Treasurer will forward to the IPHC Global Ministry Center the portion of all receipts mandated by the General Conference. In the case of a local church's failure to comply with this covenant agreement, the Conference Bishop may ask for an explanation for the delay. Churches who keep this financial covenant with the IPHC and N.C. Conference are encouraged to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions Ministries, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education and other designated ministries are to be sent to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis and forwarded accordingly.
3. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual. The Conference Bishop may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.
4. In addition to the tithe, all active members (those not retired shall pay the current rate of their income as set by the Conference Executive Council yearly for Conference Retirement. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing retirement benefits for the year (s) not paid.
5. Recommendations for salaries, benefits, etc. for Conference Officials, Pastors, Associate Pastors, etc. are to be found in the current Conference Finance Report.
6. The Conference Bishop shall confer with the church boards in the matter of Pastoral support where the need is apparent.
7. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.
8. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up to the limit set by the Conference Executive Council.
9. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by the Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

VACATIONS

The Conference Bishop shall be given vacation on the same basis as pastors. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department but not less than applies to pastors.

LOCAL CHURCH - MINISTERIAL RELATIONS

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Bishop and the Evangelism Director.
2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and create a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.
3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Retired ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.
4. Each minister, when moving from a church, shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board meetings.

USE OF CONFERENCE FACILITIES

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall follow the guidelines as established by the Conference Executive Council and shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

DEATH OF A MINISTER

In the event of the death of a North Carolina Conference minister, the office of the Conference Bishop shall notify the Conference ministers by e-mail and phone tree. The Conference Executive Council Members will be notified first.

CONFERENCE PLANNING

1. The Conference Executive Council will serve as the Nominating Committee and shall determine the name and number of committees needed for all Conference sessions.
2. The Conference Executive Council will set the dates for all Conference training events (not department) and Falcon Camp Meeting.
3. The Conference Executive Council and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

REVISION OF BYLAWS

The Conference Executive Council shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of Bylaws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the Bylaws.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT
FOR THE YEAR 2012
By: Bishop Jim Whitfield

Mr. Chairman, Conference Ministers, and Church Delegates:

It is with humble thanksgiving that I stand here today to report on the state of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. I report to you a daily experience with Jesus Christ through His Word, through prayer, and the communion of the Holy Spirit. My prayer life consists of praise and thanksgiving to God for His goodness to me, and intercession for the unsaved, the hurting, the hungry and the healthy that are carrying heavy loads. Incidentally, this summer, the North Carolina Conference has contributed $26,760 to Oklahoma City designated for tornado relief in response to the hurting and hungry victims of the tornado. I am enjoying Kingdom work in this season of my life.

What have I been doing during the year of 2012? I have traveled 26,543 ministry miles. I have conducted 26 church council meetings and 29 church business meetings. I have preached 64 times and participated in 18 funerals. I have managed two camp meetings with a combination of 27 services. Brother Danny and I have effected 19 pastoral changes (125 over the past four years). I have participated in 18 workshops, 18 additional department, college, finance, and Council of Bishop meetings. I have seen plateaued churches begin a comeback, shrinking churches begin to grow again, and I've watched with grief as other churches continue to get smaller.

As of December 2012, we had 236 churches (10 closed: 9 Hispanic and 1 Anglo, (7 new Hispanic church plants and 1 new Anglo), 4 transferred to other conferences), 31,263 members with an average attendance of 21,920. Your reports have shown 4,147 saved, 619 sanctified, 266 Baptized in the Holy Spirit, 514 baptized in water, 648 new members, and eight new churches have been added to the conference family of churches. We presently have 62 Hispanic churches and CTMs and 107 ministers. Since 2007, Brother Luis and his team have started 49 churches and CTMs. Twenty-three closed, four withdrew from conference, and four transferred to other conferences. If all new church plants had been sustainable, we would have 91 Hispanic churches and CTMs to date. This demonstrates how passionate Brother Luis and his team have been to reach the Hispanic population in North Carolina.

We have ten coaching meetings bi-monthly with what I like to call "a new breed of pastors"; pastors that are revitalizers of shrinking churches. My passion is to see new churches born and to see churches healed, healthy, and growing. I have an on-going dialogue with the Lord of the Church that is centered around two questions: (1) How to get our churches focused on the main thing and (2) How to get unsaved people interested in salvation through Jesus Christ.

I have endeavored to model servant leadership to our ministers and church leaders.
I have served Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord of my life and soul.
I have served as the Conference CEO and vision caster.

I have served as the Chairman of Board of Directors for Falcon Children's Home.
I have served as the Chairman of Board of Trustees of Holmes Bible College.
I have served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Emmanuel College.
I have served on the Finance Committee of the General Church.
I have served as an obedient husband to my wife.
I have served as the "go-to" person for my children.
I have served as the "anything you want" person for my grandchildren.

I would like to give my wife, Regenia, a unique thank you for her work in the office with School of Ministry, Minister's Wives, and public relations with the flow of people coming through the office. She travels with me to the churches on weekends to communicate her pastoral heart to our people across the conference. Thank you, Reg, Shug.

Thank you, Regenia Whitfield, Sheila Oglesby, Nicole Turransky, Karen Carter, Ginger Wheeler, Nicole Oliver, and Pablo Avila. Thank you for your energy, time, and passion for the work of the North Carolina Conference. You are the people who cause the operation to be successful. Thank you for all you do.

Mark Lucas, Rose Hubbard, Felicia Reynolds, Casey Strickland – thank you for keeping the campus ready for ministry through each changing season.

I want to thank the Conference Council, Danny Nelson, Oris Hubbard, Jon Oliver, Luis Avila, Paul Brafford, Paul Evans, Linda Thomas, Dwight Dunning, and Doug Bartlett for your team work on the administrative side of conference ministry.

I thank my God for the privilege and opportunity to serve in every one of these capacities. God bless you all for being a team player in the Kingdom assignment given by our Lord Jesus Christ to the North Carolina Conference.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH, INC.

Inspirational Conference - August 4, 2012

MINUTES OF THE 101st ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Enrollment and registration began at 8:30 a.m. followed by Bishop Jim Whitfield opening the Conference at 9:00 a.m.

Brother Kevin Mooring led the congregation in singing "Higher Ground" and "How Marvelous."

Bishop Jim Whitfield welcomed the delegation and introduced the Presiding Officer for the Conference, Bishop Talmadge Gardner, Director of World Missions Ministries and Corporate Secretary for the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. Bishop Gardner greeted the conference delegation and special guests.

Bishop Gardner called the Conference to order and presented a devotional and training time on the topic of Missional Living. Following is the manuscript:

> In 2009, our Presiding Bishop felt the Lord telling him that the IPHC needed to be a relevant, dynamic, and demonstrative church. From that, we were led to this Scripture in Acts: In him we live, and move, and have our being. We believe God is calling us to communicate and connect, to re-emphasize the basics of faith as we move toward our God-ordained destiny, and to show God's love as we honor Him in every part of our lives.
> This year, we were led to focus on 'missional living'. Ed Stetzer, in his book Planting Missional Churches, defines living missionally as "actually doing mission right where you are ... adopting the posture of a missionary, learning and adapting to the culture around you while remaining biblically sound." In other words, missional is all about being a part of God's mission for your area.
> When Don and Carol Richardson became missionaries to the cannibalistic Sawi tribe of New Guinea, they found a culture that honored treachery as an ideal. The men of this culture would form friendships with members of other tribes for the purpose of betrayal. They even had an expression that translates "to fatten with friendship for the slaughter."[i]
> The Richardsons spent years living among them as medical missionaries before they found a way in for the gospel of Jesus Christ.
> Eventually, they learned of the practice of exchanging a "peace child." Each chief would send one of his children into the care of the other as a way to guarantee a truce. When Richardson explained that Jesus was God's peace child, sent into the world to make us stop warring against God and one another, the Sawi "got it" and accepted Christ. Undoubtedly the Richardsons' years of caring for them had an effect as well.

Don and Carol Richardson are perhaps the most dramatic example of "becoming all things to all people" that we can imagine. But you don't have to live in the jungle among cannibalistic tribes to be challenged by the concept of missional living.

The term missional has become somewhat of a buzzword with regard to ministry and the church in general; but what does it really mean to live missionally? How do we take the idea of missional living and apply it to our lives and congregations today?

1 Corinthians 9:19-23.
19 Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. 20 To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. 21 To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. 22 To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. 23 I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

Literally hundreds of IPHC churches around the world have embraced a missional outlook. A handful of these stories were recorded in EVUSA's new book, God's Mission: The Mandate of the Church. If you really want to learn about missional living, I highly encourage you to purchase this book. Today, I want to share several of these stories with you in the hopes that as we look at these congregations and their leadership, we will gain a clearer understanding of what God has called us to do, and how we can embrace a missional lifestyle in our own communities.
According to 1 Corinthians 9, in order to live missionally we must:

1.First - Live Humbly
2.Secondly - Live to Serve, and
3.Thirdly - Live the Gospel

LIVE HUMBLY -

Let's try and identify what scripture means by living humbly. As believers, we are called to humbly lay aside our rights, whether it is to serve the good of others, or to serve our heavenly Father. In his letter to the Philippians, Paul said, "have the same mindset as Jesus Christ." He goes on to say that though Jesus was fully God, He gave up all His divine privileges and identified with sinful humanity in order to redeem us.

Living in humility is not an easy task. It involves putting aside one's pride. It means setting aside one's personal priorities. The truth is for someone to truly live humbly requires genuine sacrifice, genuine obedience.

Let me introduce you to a church who knows what it means to live humbly. Pastor Kevin McBride and Crossroads PH Church are ministering to the down-and-out in Petersburg, Virginia.

Petersburg was once a bustling, industrial city, but it has now fallen by the wayside. The city has the nation's highest urban percentage and is one of the poorest in their area. Pastor Kevin calls it a "city largely forgotten and avoided by the outside world."

In the midst of this poverty and hopelessness, Crossroads Church is making a difference. They provide groceries for the poorest neighborhoods, feed and clothe the homeless, and host worship services in the local prison. In addition, the church hosts Free Camp, a completely FREE camp experience to children who cannot afford to attend summer camp.

While most people are trying to get out of Petersburg, Pastor Kevin and Crossroads Church are literally invading their city with the love of Christ. Pastor Kevin says:

We feel we are being obedient to the call of Jesus to love others as he has loved us, and to minister to "the least of these" (Matthew 25:40). Not only are we providing for physical needs, but in doing so we are modeling Christ's love to those whom the vast majority of society has deemed unlovable.

God may not be calling you to a city as poor and hopeless as Petersburg, Virginia – or He may be, I don't know. But He is calling all of us to humble ourselves, to get our hands dirty, if necessary, to serve those for whom He sacrificed His life. God is calling us to engage in His mission. But in order for us to fulfill this calling effectively, we must walk humbly!

LIVE TO SERVE -

When we live humbly, we also recognize that we must dedicate our lives to service. We are all sinners saved by grace. And because we've received this grace, we are called to take the low position—to be ready to serve the Lord by serving others at a moment's notice.

But what does it mean to serve? What exactly does the Bible tell us to do?

In verse 22, Paul says, "I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some." In other words, we can contextualize the gospel in order to get the message across.

Now, Paul is not advocating that we take a "by any means necessary" approach to seeing others saved. We're called to go to the lowest of the low, not to engage in their lifestyles. In order to reach lost people, we must be willing to accept them as they are, then disciple them to become the people God has called them to be.

When we stop judging and start serving, God enables us to reach different audiences with the gospel. Let me introduce you to Josh Hannah and Friendship Outreach Center in Waverly, Tennessee.

When Josh became the pastor in 2001 the church was sending funds to missionaries and taking one church missions trip per year. But Josh had a heart for missions, and he wanted to find real, tangible ways to serve others.

The church started doing hands-on missions work, both overseas and in their local community. They hold church services at the county fair; they give away backpacks full of school supplies; they mow lawns for free; they feed the homeless. They've even established a non-profit alcohol and drug recovery program in downtown Nashville.

Today, Friendship World Outreach Center has done hands-on mission work in 18 countries. And, they've sent five of their own church members to serve as missionaries in foreign countries. What makes a church grow in this way? A God-given desire to put others first.

God is calling you to serve right where you are. He's calling you to put others first—to look past the "stuff" that makes us uncomfortable and to see others as He sees them: sinners in desperate need of a Savior. Author G.K. Chesterton said, "The way to love anything, is to realize it may be lost."

When we begin to see others through God's eyes, He'll not only give us compassion for the lost, He will give us passion to reach them. And with that passion comes creativity to meet those needs right where they are.

LIVE THE GOSPEL -

Finally, we must live the gospel. As the body of Christ, we have been loved with a great love. We in turn must love others.

Unfortunately, the church in America is known as a group that says one thing and lives another way altogether. This should not—this must not—be the case. We desperately need churches that can embody the truth of the gospel to their communities.

Pastor Ferrell Hardison and the Whitley Pentecostal Holiness Church or The Bridge as they are named now are being that example. Pastor Hardison says that when the church began to expand its mission and vision, they decided to not only talk about God's love—but demonstrate it!

> The church in general he said, has a bad reputation of always wanting something from people, instead of wanting to give to them. Generosity marked the life of Jesus, so we decided to imitate this quality. We call it 'being Jesus.'
> We washed cars for the local Sheriff's Department. We provided volunteers for the local soup kitchen. We helped the Red Cross with blood drives.
> We went into the prisons, not to force inmates to listen and accept our preaching, but to love them and build relationships. We brought in a huge grill and fed them, laughed with them, sang songs with them, listened to them, and cried with them. When they were sure our love was genuine, they asked who we were. Then we shared the transforming power of Jesus Christ.
> We learned that true revival comes when we GO, not when we stay inside the church, perplexed about the lack of participating members and spiritual renewal. It has been our overwhelming experience that those without Christ are ready to hear an explanation of who Jesus is once they've seen a clear demonstration of his love!

In Closing...

God is looking for disciples who live out the gospel they preach. He is looking for people who will put others first. He is looking for men and women who will humble themselves and serve "the least of these." He's looking for more Kevin McBride's, more Susan and Craig Bagleys, more Josh Hannahs, more Ferrell Hardisons to "flesh out" the gospel so that others may be saved.

Understand one thing: It's not about the numbers. Whether your church has 30 members, 300, or 3,000 is not the point. The point is that every church can be a missional church, regardless of size, location, or resources. To be missional means to ask God to show you the needs of your community, to give you the passion to meet those needs, and to confidently and clearly articulate the gospel.

What is God calling you to do today? Is he asking you to humble yourself in service? Is he calling you to put aside your own perceived limitations, your own fears, and put others first? Is he calling you to reach those who seem unreachable?

In Leo Tolstoy's book War and Peace, the narrator declares, "All that is necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing." Let us be known as a church that points people to Christ—not only by what we say, but also by the way we live.

It is imperative that the church awakens and realizes that unless we allow it, nothing can hinder the Lord from moving on our behalf. We must abandon the position of passivity, just sitting idle while the enemy is raiding our communities. We no longer need kings and priests and generals sitting comfortably under pomegranate trees doing nothing. We have a calling. We have a mandate. We have a mission. We need Jonathans who understand the power of God alive in their lives. We need Paul's who understand what it takes to get it done. We need people like you with willing hearts and the audacity to fulfill the tasks God has before us.

Missional living is not optional, it is necessary. We must be people that live humbly. We must be people that live to serve. And we must be people that live the gospel. In order to become all that God has called us to be, we must embrace His mission in obedience.

Pastor Yonggi Cho, founding pastor of the largest church in the world, Yoido Full Gospel Church in Seoul, Korea, when asked how his congregation of 40 grew to in excessive of one million members today, he said that the secret is very simple: He listened, and he obeyed. If you hear God's voice; if He is challenging you, stretching you, widening your horizons - Obey

Bishop Gardner led the Conference in prayer.

Bishop Gardner established the bar of the Conference as the four middle, floor-level sections and the platform. Hours for the Conference were established as those necessary to conduct all required business before the Conference.

Bishop Whitfield was recognized to lead a time of appreciation for departing North Carolina Conference staff members, Dolores Reynolds (27 years), Kay Glover (26 years) and Tommy Vaughan (16 years). Bishop Whitfield called these to the stage and an appreciation offering was received. New staff members Karen Carter, Ginger Wheeler and Nicole Oliver were then introduced.

Bishop Gardner recognized some guests in the congregation and granted seat and voice to any visiting ministers; none were recognized.

Report of the Examining Committee: Bishop Gardner invited all candidates for Local Church Minister's Certificate, License and Ordination to come to the platform. Bishop Whitfield read the report of the Examining Committee. (The complete list follows these Minutes.)

Brother Paul Brafford offered a motion to approve the report of the Examining Committee. With no second to the motion necessary, the motion passed by voice vote.

Ministerial License Candidates were asked by Bishop Gardner to stand before him. He then gave them a charge to love God supremely, serve others rather than themselves, draw on God's power within them and other challenging points.

Following the charge, Bishop Gardner declared the candidates to be Licensed Ministers and had a special prayer for the newly licensed ministers. The NCIPHC Executive Council joined the group on the floor level and laid hands on them during the prayer.

Bishop Whitfield presented certificates to the Ministers and the Council greeted each.

Bishop Gardner then proceeded with the Ordination Service. Reading from Acts 3:1-10, the message title being, "To Serve the Present Age". Three points were emphasized: Pay Attention to People, You Cannot Give Away What You Do Not Have and Whatever You Do – Do It In The Name Of Jesus.

Bishop Gardner had the ordinates to stand and gave them a charge after which he ordained each with prayer by members of the Executive Council.

Bishop Whitfield gave special recognition to those ministers who have ministered for 50 years. Rev. William and Rose Wooten and Rev. Joe and Elsie Arthur. Rev. Bobby Williams and Rev. Lee Toler were not present.

Oris Hubbard presented the financial report for 2011. Doug Bartlett made a motion to receive the report of the Secretary-Treasurer. Motion was seconded and passed. (Financial reports are posted later in this book.)

Bishop Whitfield presented his State of the Conference Report, including a challenge to reach one billion souls for Christ.

Danny Nelson offered a motion to accept the report with appreciation. Motion was seconded and passed with a rising vote of gratitude and appreciation for the Conference Superintendent's faithful service.

Brian James was recognized and brought greetings from President Michael Stewart and Emmanuel College.

Bishop Jim Whitfield, who also serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Holmes Bible College, greeted the Conference on behalf of President James Leggett and the college.

A video was shown promoting the ministries of Falcon Children's Home.

The Memoirs Committee Report was presented by Mrs. Linda Thomas, Lay Representative on the Conference Executive Council. (This report is printed later in this book.) There was a motion by Paul Brafford to approve the report. With no second to the motion necessary, the motion passed with a moment of silent remembrance and gratitude to God for these lives. Bishop Gardner led in prayer.

Bishop Gardner opened the floor for nominations for two members of the Examining Committee who will serve four-year terms. Rev. Bill Rose and Rev. Ryan Jackson were nominated. There being no further nominations, Bishop Gardner declared the two elected by acclamation.

Bishop Whitfield offered a motion to give a standing vote of appreciation for Bishop Gardner's service today. The Conference stood and applauded in appreciation for Bishop Gardner's service.

Bishop Gardner declared the Conference adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Oris Hubbard
Secretary-Treasurer

In Loving Memory

(Memoirs Report)

North Carolina Conference

International Pentecostal Holiness Church

August 4, 2012

Since we last gathered for Annual Conference, eight members of the North Carolina Conference family have gone to be with our Lord. Today we pause to honor the memory of their faithfulness to God and their service to the body of Christ.

Mrs. Pearl Casper Conner was born on December 30, 1916, to Asa Edward and Maggie Ann Evans Casper. She married Roger Conner on May 27, 1922; and they made their home in Williamston, NC. She was a member of Bethany Pentecostal Holiness Church in Williamston. Mrs. Pearl received her Local Minister's License in 1966 and joined the North Carolina Conference. Although she never pastored, she was active in ministry in the churches in her area as a speaker for special services such as Women's Ministries Days and filling in for pastors on occasions. She also had an active rest home ministry. Mrs. Pearl lived a vibrant life for Jesus Christ and was blessed to celebrate her 95th birthday on December 30, 2011. She went home to be with her Lord on July 3, 2012. Her survivors include Annie Ruth Manning, Linwood Conner (NCIPHC minister retired), Roger Lee Conner, Mavis Lee Pope, Margie Jean Wheeler; their spouses; fourteen grandchildren; twenty-five great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren.

Rev. Thoburn H. Godwin was born on August 20, 1923 to Leonard Henry and Lula Phillips Godwin. He married Geneva Tedder in 1941 and gave his heart to Christ in 1944 in Geneva's uncle's farmhouse in Wilson County. He received Mission Worker's License on October 16, 1945, Minister's License on August 31, 1946, and was ordained in Falcon NC on August 29, 1949. Rev. Godwin took courses from Emmanuel College, Holmes Bible College and Southwestern Bible College. He served as an evangelist for two years and pastored at Thompson Chapel, Farmville, Belfast, Whitley, Pink Hill, Roper, Vanceboro, Millennium, Rocky Mount First, Sanford First, New Bern First, Gum Chapel, Bizzell Grove, Benson, Hodges Chapel, Rehoboth, Holland Chapel and Brentwood, spending a total of forty-five years in pastorate. After his retirement, he lived in Wilson and Sanford. His daughters, Judy and Dorcas, survive him; and a son, T.H. Godwin, Jr., preceded him in death. Rev. Godwin went to Heaven on July 4, 2012, just prior to his 89th birthday. He leaves a Godly Christian heritage to his two daughters, three grandsons, four great-grandsons and four great-granddaughters.

Rev. David Henry Jones, Sr. was born April 17, 1935 to Edward L. and Cassie M. Jones. He married Mary Jane Pier on August 6, 1953. He was saved in 1945 at Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Girard, PA. He later attended Toccoa Falls College and received a Ministerial Diploma from Faith School of Theology in Charleston ME. He received Exhorter License in 1966, Ministerial License in 1968 and was ordained in the Church of God in 1977. He served as pastor to churches in Maine, Indiana, Canada and New York through 1975. He also served as Overseer in Maine for two years. Rev. Jones taught at Faith Theological Seminary in Maine and Harvest Christian Academy in New York in the eighties. He joined the North Carolina Conference in 1999 and served as houseparent, maintenance worker and as wood work shop teacher at Falcon Children's Home. He conducted Sunday morning services at Care More Nursing Home and Golden Years Nursing as well as teaching Sunday School at a local church. Rev. Jones went to his heavenly reward on February 18, 2012. He leaves behind his loving wife, Mary; five daughters – Peggy, Cindy, Pamela, Julia and Merie; and one son, David.

Rev. Philip T. List, Sr. was born on September 10, 1938, in New Zealand to missionary parents, Bill and Lottie List. He attended Holmes Bible College and Furman University. He married a North Carolina girl, Gailya Williams. In 1962, Rev. List, along with Gailya and their small children, entered the mission fields of Africa to spend a lifetime as an apostle and evangelist successfully reaching multiple tribes for Christ. He preached in seven languages and was conversational in four more languages (including Chinese). He helped found churches in South Africa, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Ethiopia, Burundi, Rwanda, Southern Sudan, Uganda, Tanzania and the Democratic Republic of the Congo. His outreach was the means of thousands being introduced to Jesus. He was founder and senior pastor of Calvary Worship Centre in Nairobi. Rev. List transferred from the South Carolina Conference to the North Carolina Conference in 2008. At the time of his death, he served as senior IPHC Missionary in East Africa. On May 23, 2012, he left this life for his final destination and heavenly reward. Survivors include: Wife, Gailya; children: Rev. Philip T. List, Jr., Rev. Sharon List Wooten, Rev. David William List and Elizabeth Charlotte Marie Newport; spouses of his children; thirteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Rev. List's legacy lives on as Gailya plans to return to Africa and to their ministry there along with their daughter, Sharon and her husband, Rev. Ron Wooten, as they continue to march "Forward With the Gospel."

Rev. Hildred Cecil Potter was born to Mark and Hannah Potter in New Bern, NC, on February 8, 1932. He met Mary Elizabeth Strickland at his home church, New Bern First, and they were married on April 7, 1950. Converted to Christ in 1954, he was called by God to ministry shortly thereafter. He was granted Mission Workers License in 1955 and graduated from Holmes Bible

College in 1957. In the 1957 NC Conference session, he received his Minister's License and was ordained in 1959. His pastorates included Oriental, Darlington, Beaufort, Bethel, Person Street, Gospel Tabernacle, Wilson First, Glad Tidings, Ayden, Millennium and Gethsemane. He supervised several major building programs during a span of 42 years of continuous faithful pastoral service. He also served on the N.C. Conference Christian Education Board for five years and various other committees and appointments. He retired in 1997 and operated his own locksmith business. He departed this life on December 21, 2011, for his eternal reward. His wife of 61 years, Mary, lived only a few months longer than he. They are survived by their son, Gary; their daughter, Rachel McFatter; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Hildred was one of six Potter brothers, four of whom were IPHC ministers. Surviving brothers are Rev. Raymond Potter, Rev. Wesley Potter and Rev. Vernon Potter. He was preceded in death by two brothers - Rev. Mark Potter and Bobby Potter.

Rev. Marvin Glenwood Rogers was born March 6, 1935, in Johnston County, NC, to Wiley Thomas and Flora Parrish Rogers. He was saved at Bizzell Grove PH Church in 1952 at the age of seventeen and married Lida Jean Narron on June 7, 1956. He received Mission Worker's License in 1969 at Tabernacle Church in Goldsboro, Ministerial License in 1970 and was ordained by Bishop J. Floyd Williams in 1972. Rev. Rogers took courses through Emmanuel College and received his Associate Degree in Theology from William Howard Carter College. He was a bi-vocational pastor, working as an insurance agent and staff manager. His pastorates included Calypso, Tyndall Grove, Darlington, Graham Memorial, Nakina, St. Matthew, Snow Hill and Manley Grove. He directed building programs and improvement plans at every church he served. He retired in May 2000 with 30 years of committed service to N C Conference. One of his favorite childhood memories was of the expressive worship at Falcon Camp Meeting, and he continued to enjoy the annual camp meetings through the years. Rev. Rogers always gave great credit to his wife, Jean, for her role in his ministry. He stated, "My wife was always by my side ... truly a help mate ... encouraging me every step of the way ... truly a Pastor's wife." God called Marvin to his eternal home on March 29, 2012. He is survived by Jean and their two sons, Craig & Keith Rogers and their spouses; four grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Rev. Kenneth H. Tart was born in Sampson County, NC, on August 4, 1935, to Joseph Henry and Agnes Page Tart. His early years were spent in Dunn and Wilmington, but his family moved to Fayetteville where he graduated from Central High School. He was saved at Person Street Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1952 and married Melree Hubbard in 1953. Rev. Tart received his Minister's License in 1954 and went on to Holmes Bible College in Greenville, SC, earning his degree in 1956. He was ordained in 1957 and pastored churches in Elizabethtown, Clarkton, Chadbourn, Stedman and Whiteville. He was known for his charitable nature as he helped plant churches, pay college tuition for children of friends, pay funeral expenses for those less fortunate and give Christmas gifts and such. He had a strong work ethic, and dependability was part of his character. He retired from NC Conference because of disability in 1996. Rev. Tart passed from this life to his reward on March 28, 2012, to join with his daughter, Alice Melree, who died in 1976. He leaves behind Melree, his wife of 59 years, along with their son, Kenneth Tart, Jr.; two daughters – Rebekah Wiens and Mary Whitaker; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Rev. George William Weaver was born on September 5, 1933, in Wayne County, NC, to Rev. and Mrs. Fred Weaver. He married Gladys Campbell on June 1, 1952, and was saved at Jones Grove Church at Mt. Olive in May 1954. In the late fifties, he began to travel with his preacher father to conduct revival meetings. He received Mission Worker's License in 1960, Minister's License in 1962 and was ordained in 1974. During his 37 year tenure, he pastored churches at Grifton, Caraleigh, Graham Memorial, Moore's Chapel, Hopewell and Thompson Chapel. After his retirement, he pastored an additional five years at Jones Grove, the church where he was saved many years before. Rev. Weaver was known as a "People Person" who truly loved the people he served. He took his call to preach as the greatest single direction in his life. He came from a family of NC Conference preacher brothers: Rev. Samuel Weaver, Rev. Jesse Weaver, Rev. Nick Weaver, Rev. Jerry Weaver and Rev. Paul Weaver. One brother, Rev. Allen Weaver, preceded him in death. He departed his earthly journey for Heaven on September 7, 2012. He left behind his wife, Gladys, for only a short while. She followed him to her eternal reward three months later on December 18, 2011. Surviving are daughters, Peggy, Rebecca and Vickie and their spouses; five grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren. His legacy lives on as his grandson, Brian Rogers, is a member of the North Carolina Conference currently pastoring the Kinston First Church.

Paul's words to his spiritual son, Timothy, sum up what I believe these faithful servants of God would have us to understand about them.

> I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: And not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. (2 Timothy 4:7)

Today we lovingly honor the memory of those who have labored among us. They are missed from our presence today. But ....

> We sorrow not as those who have no hope
> For we DO believe that Jesus died and rose again

We DO believe that those who sleep in Jesus will be brought again by God
We DO believe that we which are live and remain until the coming of the Lord will meet again with those who have gone before us.
We DO believe the Lord himself will come down from Heaven with a shout ... with the voice of the archangel and the trump of God
We DO believe the dead in Christ shall rise first and that those who are still alive shall be caught up with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air
So shall we ever be with the Lord.

WE COMFORT EACH OTHER WITH THESE WORDS

(Reference 1 Thess. 4:13)

Please join with me in a moment of silence honoring the memory of our departed loved ones.

(Closing Prayer)

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, 'Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them'." (Revelation 14:13)

The Retired Ministers Fund Constitution of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.

Preface

The North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church through the years has endeavored to provide a benefit package for its retired ministers. First, there was the "Provident Fund" which required the participants to contribute five dollars ($5.00) per year. Only a few ministers participated in the program.

In 1939, at the Annual Conference in Williamston, North Carolina, the conference changed the name of the Fund to the "Superannuate Fund." A percentage from the conference budget was allocated for retired ministers.

In the beginning, ministers were allowed to participate on a voluntary basis; but it soon became evident that the program must become mandatory in order for all ministers to receive benefits at retirement.

The name, Retired Ministers Fund, was adopted at the 2006 Quadrennial Conference held in Falcon, North Carolina.

From those small beginnings the Retired Ministers Fund has grown. It has continued to have a healthy build up of cash reserves and has provided a steady increase of benefits to its members.

The Retired Ministers Fund provides an excellent benefit for the minister. Most ministers will draw more in benefits in the first and second years of retirement than they paid into the program during all their active participating years.

It is very important for the minister to make full contribution each year or lose the benefit for that year. Each minister should adequately prepare for the retirement years. The retirement program of this conference is a vital part of this preparation.

I. RETIRED MINISTERS FUND

The following regulations determine the distribution of funds from the Retired Ministers Fund to qualifying ministers:

A. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be a part of the financial program of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.
   1. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be for the benefit of:
      a. Ministers and their spouses
      b. Spouses of deceased ministers

B. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be administered by the North Carolina Conference Executive Council, herein referred to as the "Administrators".

C. The North Carolina Conference financial records shall be the basis of verifying individual participation.

D. In the event a minister does not pay the minimum requirement within 30 days of the ending of the conference year, said minister shall permanently lose that service year.

II. PERPETUATION

This fund shall be supported in the following ways:

A. The conference treasury by the payment of a percentage of clergy and church tithes (this percentage is noted in the appendix).

B. Ministers shall pay a percentage of net income monthly or a minimum per annum, whichever is greater (this percentage and minimum is noted in the appendix).

C. Full-time ministerial students in preparation for the ministry are required to pay a minimum per annum as noted in the appendix.

D. Interest and/or dividends on investments from these funds.

E. Gifts, endowments, legacies, etc.

III. PARTICIPATION

A. Retirement: A minister who has reached full retirement age, or has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration shall be eligible upon request for retirement benefits. Said minister may elect to retire at age sixty-two (62) with 80% of accrued benefits; at age sixty-three (63) with 87% of accrued benefits; or at age sixty-four (64) with 94% of accrued benefits. The rate of benefits shall be determined by:

1. Number of service years as a member of the North Carolina Conference.
2. Support of the conference financial program.
    a. In the event a minister retires because of disability before reaching full retirement age AND has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration, said minister will receive full benefits for the duration of disability. The rate of retirement benefits shall be based on service years in the conference and support of its financial program.
    b. Upon retirement, full-time ministers shall receive the current designated amount for full-time ministers as noted in the appendix of this Constitution. In the event a full-time minister reverts to part-time status, full-time service years would be retained. Full-time service years will be interpreted by the administrators and based upon the minister's conference assignment record.
    c. "Full-time" is defined as those years during which a minister is assigned as pastor, full-time pastoral staff or is serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position.
    d. Upon retirement, part-time ministers (those not on conference assignment), will receive the current designated amount for part-time ministers (as noted in the appendix).

e. Ministerial students, while in school, will be considered full-time only if under conference assignment.

f. The administrators are to annually consider the feasibility of an increase of benefits.

B. At least twenty percent (20%) of the previous year's receipts shall be retained in the Retired Ministers Fund.

C. A Christmas gift shall be given to each person currently receiving benefits so long as adequate funding is available.

D. Spousal Benefits will be one-half (1/2) the monthly benefit of the deceased minister at the time of death.

1. Spouse of deceased retired ministers shall receive spousal benefit on a monthly basis beginning the month following the minister's death.
2. In the event a minister dies prior to retirement, the surviving spouse may request in writing, refund (without interest) of contributions made to retirement fund or elect to begin spousal benefit at age sixty (60) or upon approval for disability by the Social Security Administration. Such written request must be made within ninety (90) days of death. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of Conference Executive Council's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference and/or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.
3. In the event a retired minister remarries and then dies, the spouse shall be eligible for retirement benefits at the age of sixty (60) or disability as aforementioned.
4. Where both husband and wife are ministers, and the husband or wife is deceased, the living spouse will receive spousal benefits. When the living spouse becomes eligible for retirement, said spouse will receive the greater of the two benefits.
5. Should the spouse of a deceased minister remarry, benefits will cease. If the new spouse should die, said spouse shall be eligible for the restoration of spousal benefits. The recipient must request the restored benefits in writing. Remarriage shall annul this provision.
6. Should the remarriage of a spouse of a deceased minister end in divorce, the decision regarding restoration of spousal benefits shall be based on guidelines for divorce and remarriage as stated in the IPHC manual.

E. A death benefit of $500.00 shall be paid to the estate of a deceased minister or to the surviving spouse.

F. Requirements: Clergy receiving benefits from this Fund shall have paid one-hundred percent (100%) of their tithes, both secular and ministerial, and shall have met the minimum requirement for retirement benefits. This requirement must be met annually. The sentence dealing with tithes is not to conflict with General Conference rulings concerning General Conference Officials and those engaged in Home Missions Conferences.

G. No person shall have recourse to civil law for the collection of any benefits herein set forth.

IV. ADMINISTRATION

A. Any qualified member desiring retirement shall submit completed application (available from the Conference Ministry Center) to the Conference Bishop at least thirty (30) days prior to planned retirement date.

B. Any minister withdrawing membership or being dismissed from the North Carolina Conference shall, upon written request, be refunded the amount said minister has contributed into the fund without interest. Such request must be made within sixty (60) days of severance. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of administrator's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.

C. Clergy receiving retirement benefits may be used as an interim pastor without affecting retirement benefit.

D. Retired ministers shall cease to accrue service years at the time of retirement and are no longer required to contribute to the retirement fund, but may choose to do so to bless the fund's continuance.

V. SECONDED CLERGY

A ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference who is seconded to another conference to pastor a church in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church may continue to participate in the North Carolina Conference retirement program by complying with the following:

A. To earn "part-time" retirement benefits for any given year, the seconded minister must:

1. Contribute the greater of stipulated annual percentage of income or the annual minimum contribution to the Retired Ministers Fund of the North Carolina Conference (both as noted in the appendix)
2. Contribute a percentage of regular tithe to the Retired Ministers Fund of the North Carolina Conference equal to the quadrennial budget percentage noted in the appendix. Seconded minister shall make the Conference Bishop of the Conference to which said minister is seconded, aware of this requirement.
3. "Part-time" is defined as service years during which a minister is not pastoring nor serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position.

B. "Full-time" is defined as those years during which a minister is assigned as pastor, full-time pastoral staff or is serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position. To earn "full-time" retirement benefits for any given year, the seconded minister must:

1. Contribute a percentage of net income monthly or a minimum per annum, whichever is greater (this percentage and minimum is noted in the appendix).
2. Contribute a percentage of regular tithe equal to the current budget allocation percentage as noted in the appendix.
3. To satisfy the requirement of the retirement program, the church which the seconded minister pastors must agree to contribute a percentage of the amount of church's tithes retained by the church's conference to the North Carolina Conference Retired Ministers Fund. This amount shall be equal to the current budget allocation percentage (see appendix for example). The seconded minister is expected to make the church he pastors aware of this requirement as well as the Conference office and Conference Bishop to which he reports.

C. When a licensed or ordained minister chooses to transfer to another IPHC conference, said minister may choose to freeze retirement account at the current level at time of transfer, or may withdraw actual contributions (See IV. B). The decision to freeze retirement account must be presented in writing to the office of the Conference Bishop within 60 days after the application to transfer.

VI. INVESTMENTS

Administrators are hereby authorized to deposit assets of the Retired Ministers Fund into the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund and/or other financial institutions. Administrators will insure that these funds are not deposited into a financial institution or program that supports businesses which compromise the moral standards of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

VII. AMENDMENTS

A. This Constitution shall not be amended or changed in any conference session except in the following manner:

1. Any proposed change or amendment must be submitted by the Conference Executive Council or a number of persons equal to said Council.
2. Such a resolution must be preceded by a reading of the Constitution or that portion of the Constitution involved.
3. Further, such reading and such proposed change or amendment must be read in a previous session before a vote is taken on a resolution.
4. Amendments shall require a two-thirds majority vote for adoption.

B. Copies of this Constitution shall be printed and made available to all ministers presently in the North Carolina Conference and to each minister upon membership in the conference. The requirements of this Constitution are absolutely mandatory. All clergy must comply in order to be eligible for retirement benefits. The proposed amendments of this Constitution shall not be retroactive.

- End-

Appendix to
The Retired Ministers Fund Constitution of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.

Current rates and percentages adopted by the North Carolina Conference or the NCIPHC Executive Council.

- Beginning August 2006, the current rate paid for full-time service years is $12.00 per month per service year.
- Beginning August 2006, the current rate paid for part-time service years is $9.00 per month per service year.
- The current budget allocation for the Retirement Fund is 24%.
- The current minimum amount that ministers are required to contribute to the Retirement Fund is two percent (2%) of net income monthly or $250.00 per annum, whichever is greater.
- Seconded Minister's Church Contribution example:
  The current budget allocation above is 24%. If a church's tithe to their Conference is $10,000.00 for the year, 45% or $4,500.00 is retained in the Conference (55% is sent to the Global Ministry Center in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma). The church would be required to send $1,080.00 (24% of $4,500.00) to the North Carolina Conference Retired Ministers' Fund for its seconded pastor.

North Carolina Women's Ministries
2011-2012 DIRECTOR'S REPORT

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17

On January 27, 2012, the NCWM Board adopted a new vision statement: "Changed Women Changing the World". Just speaking it brings an emotional stir in my Spirit. It is my desire that the Fire of God be ignited in every local WM group in such a way that each woman throughout our Conference will experience a spiritual change in her life … a fire that will literally burn out weariness, dread, doubt, hopelessness, fear, low self-esteem, complacency, unforgiveness, loneliness, depression, feelings of inadequacy … any and every spirit that hinders her from moving forward to reach her spiritual destiny. My prayer is that His Fire will transform, remold and revolutionize each one of us individually and that we will find ourselves ministering to, nurturing, encouraging and fostering those who are broken, bruised, unsaved and in need of a Savior. I pray that we will find it easy to cultivate an atmosphere everywhere we go which will result in positive relationships in order to open doors of opportunities for discipleship and the miraculous to happen. I pray that, as changed women, we will touch others in a manner that will not only make a difference in our world today but will also affect the world of tomorrow. Truthfully, my desire is to see a revival start among our women that will cultivate change in the landscape of lives and land. May we see old things pass away and all things become new. I ask you to take this challenge back to your local group and rejoice as change happens during the coming year.

It has been another action-packed, fun-filled year. With my "high strung" nature and a calendar full of deadlines, I often turn my face heavenward and say to myself, "Relax in Jesus and enjoy every moment that I am blessed to be used by Him". Thanks be unto our LORD for reminding me again and again that He has not given me a spirit of fear but of power and love and a sound mind. I keep reminding myself that Jesus didn't do everything in one day; therefore, He doesn't expect me to either. However, I'm convinced that every minute spent praying, planning, presenting, promoting or traveling for Women's Ministries is a minute well spent because it has the potential to impact the life of another woman in need of a loving touch.

Some of my favorite time is spent speaking for your WM Day services, district rallies, monthly meetings, district leadership summits and tea parties. I also am blessed with personal communications through phone calls, e-mails, and Face book as we cultivate relationships that I trust will last into eternity. I thank THE LORD for His strength and safety as I, or often times Gary and I, have traveled in excess of 7,500 miles holding workshops, training sessions, and representing you at fall and winter leadership summits, quarterly Discipleship Ministries Board Meetings, the Bishop's Strategic Advisory Council meetings, NC Men's Ministries Golf Tournament events, and sessions with the NC WIN Board. More and more the NCWM is cultivating a closer relationship with all departments within the Conference endeavoring to unite efforts to make a difference in the Kingdom.

A highlight of my year was attending the National Girls' Ministries event, Power Chicks, at Ridgecrest. The "little girl" just came right out in me. I had the opportunity to attempt something I had wanted to do for years – climb a rock wall. My goal is to one day soon try it again and have the strength to complete those last few feet and make it to the top.

Many of you strived hard this past year to meet goals and even go over the top by supporting our church schools with your contributions to the Feast of Ingathering Offering. Your offerings, including matching funds, were $63,950.50. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern Christian University, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College. Our goal was $70,000. A personal donation from a former WM Director in the amount of $25,000.00 to furnish the new dormitory at Holmes Bible College pushed us over the top bringing our combined total to $88,950.50.

You gave $13,017.38 to Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $10,904.98.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $83,258.00 in cash and $30,580.00 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $2,626.20 to The Royal Home Ministries.

In addition to the funds given by our local WM groups, $5,201.00 was given at the 2011 Retreat to support The Bridge Ministry in Nashville, TN, where Candy Christmas ministers to the homeless. You also ministered to the orphans in Nakura, Africa, by giving $1,032.96 at the 2011 NCWM Convention in response to God's command to remember the orphans.

In March, 2011, Teresa Woodard was appointed as NCWM Secretary/Treasurer. Shortly after Teresa's appointment, she was diagnosed with cancer and received her promotion to heaven on February 28, 2012. During Teresa's sickness, PATSY DEESE willingly stepped in and kept our financial records in order. Since Teresa's death, Patsy has continued to do the job with a spirit of excellence. Patsy, we take our hats off to you!! Our hearts are filled with love and gratitude.

Throughout the year, NCWM board members TERRY BOYETTE, DARNELL NELMS and ELAINE STALLS have excelled in their giftings as ministry cohorts united in the effort of cultivating a WM outreach relevant to today. I stand amazed at how the Holy Spirit energizes and utilizes them for His glory. Our board meetings are long, and the e-mails and phone calls are many; but they never seem to tire of the ministry to which they have been called. Thank you ladies. You're just the best!

A very special member of our team is KATHYA GONZALEZ, NCWM Bilingual Advisor, who is assisting us with cultivating a positive relationship with our Hispanic ladies. She is such an innovative thinker and passionate participator. We are proud to call her part of the family.

For many years, the more mature faces have led the way in WM. In an effort to cultivate an atmosphere where our younger women feel accepted and trusted, each local WM group is encouraged to appoint a Next Generation Leader to serve with the local WM board. This is to be a woman under the age of 35. Her period of service is one year. In 2012, AMANDA CLOWERS joined alongside the NCWM Board. Her life experiences have molded her into a daughter of great beauty. She took her place "at the table" and immediately went to work. Thank you, Amanda, for the input and enthusiasm you have already contributed.

I would like to thank Mavis Bland and Patsy Deese for continuing to promote our Forever Loved Ministry. Their hearts have been sensitive to the needs of our widows; thus this ministry was birthed. The vision is for every local church across the Conference to prayerfully cultivate an atmosphere where widows will connect with other widows in their congregations and build a vibrant, healthy ministry of support and camaraderie. We appreciate Patsy and Mavis and their desire to see this ministry come to full fruition.

The heart of our Girls' Ministries leadership team has been to cultivate a discipleship ministry that will affect the lives of our girls at each level. Under the direction of LYDIA MILLS and her leadership team, CRYSTAL GRANT, DEBRA COLLINS, and WANDA OATES, these ladies are making every effort to see that happen. They are truly a blessing to our Conference. Thank you, ladies. You ARE making an impact on the lives of the girls of the NC Conference. Crystal will be leaving her post as secretary-treasurer on June 30th. We want to especially thank her for six years of great service to this Conference and the GM team. She has given it her all. Her true reward will be "out of this world."

BLANCHE POLLARD has done it again!! Biannually she cultivates an atmosphere where our more mature women can come together for a time of fun, food and fellowship. Along with her cheerful leadership, we appreciate Janice Lucas, Juanita Russell, Mary Belle Johnson, and Jean Gore for assisting her with planning and promoting the regional HAPPY HEARTS meetings. To all the Happy Hearts, we want to say a special thank you for bringing an extra measure of happiness to underprivileged children by making and donating Christmas stockings to various churches including Metro Ministries in New York.

Women on whom I depend for valuable input, prayer and support are those of The Past President's/Director's Club chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT. Their cards and e-mails seem to come at just the right moment as they willingly respond to the prompting of the Holy Spirit. Thank you MS. DOLLIE, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON, LINDA THOMAS, and PATSY DEESE for being my Aaron and Hur as you continuously hold up my hands and keep me steady through your love and prayers.

That special lady in your district who you see serving as a registrar and helper at various NCWM functions is the same lady who calls or sends you a note of reminder in an effort to cultivate your interest in district rallies and our various activities and offerings. These ladies are our prized NCWM District Directors. Special thanks to DEANNA BARNEY, JANICE MOON, LARUE TART, BRENDA PHILLIPS, MAVIS BLAND, ROSE ALLIGOOD, CAROL DAVIS, SANDY BORRELL, MARY ANN BAILEY and JACKIE THOMPSON for your service as liaisons between the NCWM Board and the local groups. Your price is above rubies!

Thank you NCWM Historian MEDIA LEE for being so faithful in capturing all those special WM memories ... even as you made many final but wonderful memories with your Mom during her sickness this year. Your faithfulness will be rewarded.

Thank you to Discipleship Ministries Director JON OLIVER for your phone calls, e-mails and many words of advice and encouragement. You are a man of great value, and it is an absolute privilege to work under your leadership.

Thank you BISHOP JIMMY WHITFIELD for treating me like one of your own! There have been some "crisis moments" for me this past year about which only a few have knowledge. In those times you ministered to me, not only from the level of a Bishop with words of wisdom and compassion, but also like a Godly father encouraging and advising his daughter. I appreciate you more than I can express with words.

Our FIRST LADY REGENIA WHITFIELD cultivates an atmosphere of encouragement with every encounter. To know her is to love her. Thank you Mrs. Regenia, for supporting WM with your prayers and attendance and for providing that special "tender loving care" to our Bishop and our minister's wives in the NC Conference.
Thank you to all the RDC PERSONNEL for assisting me time and time again. Your love, patience and spirit of cooperation are truly appreciated.

This year we faced the challenge of the conversion of our financial reporting system to the standardized reporting process mandated at the 2009 General Conference. Thank you to our Conference Secretary-Treasurer, ORIS HUBBARD, and to PATSY DEESE for your many hours of work in seeing this process implemented. To all you LOCAL SECRETARY-TREASURERS, thank you for your positive attitude and spirit of flexibility. Together we are making it happen.

Thank you to our faithful PRAYER TEAM for being a lifeline between the NCWM Board and heaven. Your faces aren't visible to us every day, but they are to God. As He looks upon you, I believe He sees all of us as well. You have had His ear, and He has had our backs!

My heart is full of appreciation for my home church, Good News Ministries, Pastor Phillip Bland, and his wife, Holly, and the entire church family. They wrap me in prayer when I go and wrap me in love when I return.

My Gary is such a supporter. He cultivates an atmosphere in our home where I can work quietly at any time day or night when the mood hits me. He has been so understanding about working our plans around the many events on my calendar. His supportive attitude is a blessing.

To each of you, I remind you that I love you; and I appreciate your work on the local level. I am grateful for every prayer you pray for me. I return the blessing back to you. I often refer to a prayer on my computer wall that I received from the wife of one of our pastors. It reminds me that their church is praying for me and asking God to strengthen me when I am weak; for a burst of energy when I am tired; for wisdom when I have questions for which I cannot seem to find the answers; for directions when I do not know which way to go; and for a double portion that I just cannot contain.

I pray the same for you as you continue to dedicate yourselves to our vision of "Changed Women Changing the World" in an atmosphere that gives honor and glory to God everywhere He places you in Kingdom service.

Serving in full view of the Lord,

Janice

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2012 CONVENTION

"...forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."
(Ephesians 4:32)

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-Eighth Annual Convention on Saturday June 2, 2012 at the Culbreth Memorial Auditorium in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "A Heart That Forgives".

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the auditorium foyer with the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors serving as Registrars.

Local Women's Ministries groups and other Conference Ministries had "Show and Sell" displays along the sides of the auditorium floor.

Cultivating an Atmosphere of Worship

Musical prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by NCWM Assistant Director, Terry Boyette.

Ministry in Poem, "Almost" was presented by special guest, Isaiah Strozier. This sixteen year old is choreographer for the Mime Ministry at The Bridge in Princeton. The audience was captivated by his performance. We heard a lot of "Wows".

Welcome and Invocation was given by NCWM Director, Janice Marshburn. She invited North Carolina Conference Bishop Jimmy Whitfield to the platform. Brother Jimmy thanked Director Marshburn for all her zeal, enthusiasm and leadership to North Carolina Women's Ministries. He welcomed everyone to this WM Convention and expressed his appreciation for all their hard work and support to NCWM.

NCWM Board Member Darnell Nelms shared a special DVD presentation in memory of Teresa Woodard. Teresa served on the NCWM Board from July 2010 until her death, February 28, 2012. During that time she served as NCWM Board member and the last year as NCWM Secretary/Treasurer. She loved Women's Ministries and she will be forever missed!

Isaiah Strozier returned to the stage sharing his Ministry in Mime. He touched our hearts once again with a wonderful performance of "God Is Able". Prior to our guest speaker coming to share what the Lord laid upon her heart, Isaiah shared the Mime, "A Heart That Forgives". The Lord has blessed this young man with a great talent and we were excited that he could be with us for this Convention.

Jan Carter, WM Director at the Baywood P.H. Church in Fayetteville, blessed us by sharing her testimony in song, "In the Name of the Lord". What a blessing and what an anointing!

Kathya Gonzalez, NCWM Bilingual Advisor, introduced our guest speaker, Rev. Leonor Powell. She is the pastor of the Boardman P.H. Church in Lumberton. In addition to pastoring, she has traveled over the Mid-Atlantic States preaching in Women's Conferences, revivals, and special meetings. She spoke to us from Deuteronomy 11:12-14. The Lord wants us to worship Him with all of our hearts and to walk in fellowship with Him. We need to keep our wells "unstopped"; we never know when someone will need to drink from our well. We were blessed by this woman of God and so grateful she allowed the Lord to use her to share her heart to help prepare the body of Christ to move up to the next level.

Cultivating an Atmosphere for Fellowship

During this time of fellowship the ladies were given a twenty-minute break. This was an opportunity for them to visit the Ministry Centers and enjoy light refreshments provided by NCWM.

Cultivating an Atmosphere for Business

NCWM Director Janice Marshburn welcomed the ladies back to their seats in order to begin the business session of the Convention.

NCWM Board member, Elaine Stalls shared information about her portfolio, which included Benevolence, CPals and DRUSA. She thanked everyone for their continued support to Falcon Children's Home through their gifts and offerings. A short video clip was shown from Joey Leggett, Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, in which he expressed his gratitude to everyone for their love and support to the Children's Home. Elaine also reminded the ladies that June is Sharing Sister Month (now known as CPals) and encouraged their participation. Through DRUSA we are helping others by preparing the PerCaKits. These kits are distributed to families when a disaster happens. We are in need of additional kits. Guidelines for these kits were enclosed in the WM packets distributed to those attending the Convention. Elaine also encouraged participation in the upcoming Sanctity of Life Golf Tournament scheduled for Friday, June 29. Proceeds will support The Royal Home in Salemburg and the NC Conference Women's Ministries and Men's Ministries.

Terry Boyette, NCWM Assistant Director, whose portfolios are Missions and Intercession, thanked everyone for their support. Missionaries Rose Boyd and Sharon Wooten were given an opportunity to greet the ladies and to thank them for their continued love and support. A new Stay In Touch, Missionary Assignment sheet was included in the WM packet. Missionaries are assigned to local WM groups for them to correspond with them as much as possible. Also included in the packet were ideas for Intercession that could be implemented in the local WM groups.

Darnell Nelms, NCWM Board Member, whose portfolio is Education, shared a video from the 2011 Feast of Ingathering presentations to our church schools.

Janice Marshburn and Darnell Nelms then awarded Scholarships to the following Emmanuel students: Jenna Aycock, Roslin Balla, Jennie Gardner, Jonathan Mills, and Justin Morris. A total of $2,850 was given to these students to assist in their education to Emmanuel College. Both Jenna Aycock and Jennie Gardner were able to attend the Convention and expressed their appreciation to the women.

NCWM Director Janice Marshburn read her written report for 2011-2012, which is included in the NCWM Annual Report Booklet. She also shared with the group the new NCWM Vision Statement: "Changed women changing the world."

Lydia Mills, Girls' Ministries Director, spoke about all of the opportunities provided through Girls' Ministries. She encouraged everyone to plan to attend the GM training scheduled for August 25. A special presentation was made to Crystal Grant, GM Secretary/Treasurer for her six years of service to NC Girls' Ministries. She has done an excellent job serving in this position. Due to circumstances beyond her control, she has resigned from this position effective June 30, 2012. A gift was presented from both NCWM as well as NC Girls' Ministries.

A total of $1,085.00 was collected in a special offering to support NC Girls' Ministries during this Convention. We appreciate this gift of love.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to the NCWM Leadership by Director Marshburn for their hard work and dedication to Women's Ministries.

The Awards Presentation was made by Director Janice Marshburn for those churches earning special recognition.

Amanda Clowers, 2012 Next Generation Leader, read the Memoirs Report. This report closed out the business portion of the Convention.

Closing remarks and our benediction were given by Director Marshburn.

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by the Women's Ministries of the Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness Church from Wilson in memory of Mrs. Teresa Woodard.

Respectfully Submitted,

Patsy C. Deese
